FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ABATE of Florida, Inc. Announces Our Harley Davidson Super Glide Winner

Deland, FL, March 14, 2011 – ABATE of Florida, Inc.'s 2011 Annual Daytona Bike Week Campground ended our 10 day run with our yearly Harley Davidson Motorcycle Drawing, always a favorite.

ABATE of Florida's President James "Doc" Reichenbach II officiated the drawing and after loading all the tickets into a bingo-style tumbler and turning it several times, an ABATE of Florida member looked away and began fishing around inside the tumbler for the winning ticket. With a ticket sold by our Gator Alley Chapter, Robert Finn's name was announced as the winner of a brand new 2010 Harley Davidson FXD Super Glide motorcycle. Robert will be enjoying a his new Harley Davidson bike with all taxes, title, and registrations fees already paid for by ABATE of Florida.

Additional winners in our 2011 Bike Week Drawing were: Mike Bowden, winning a new leather jacket, (winning ticket sold by our Brevard County Chapter); Michael Saunders, winning a Harley Davidson clock (winning ticket sold by our Southernmost Chapter); and Kara Nelson, winning a vest donated by B & B Enterprises (winning ticket sold by our Putnam Chapter).

The proceeds from this raffle will help fund ABATE of Florida's continued fight for motorcyclists' rights as well as the continuing education of drivers in Florida that motorcycles are everywhere around them.

Make sure to look for tickets to our 2012 Bike Week Drawing; next year's prize: $10,000!!!!
